Allegis Global Solutions Recognized by General Motors as a 2016 Supplier of the Year

Hanover, Md. – Allegis Global Solutions (AGS), the world’s largest privately held talent management company, was named a GM Supplier of the Year for Contract Labor by General Motors (GM) during its 25th annual Supplier of the Year awards ceremony held Friday, March 31 in Orlando, Florida. This is the sixth time AGS has earned the award from GM, one of the world’s largest automakers.

GM recognized 118 of its best suppliers from 15 countries that have consistently exceeded GM’s expectations, created outstanding value or brought new innovations to the company.

“Our promise is to optimize how our clients acquire and manage talent to drive ROI and achieve their business goals,” said AGS President Chad Lane. “It is an honor to be recognized for the sixth time by GM for delivering on this promise.”

“We are focused on building positive supplier relationships, bringing new, customer-centric innovations to GM and being the OEM of choice among suppliers,” said Steve Kiefer, GM vice president, Global Purchasing and Supply Chain. “The companies we recognize tonight not only have brought innovation, they delivered it with the quality our customers deserve.”

Winning suppliers were chosen by a global team of GM purchasing, engineering, quality, manufacturing and logistics executives and selected based on performance criteria in Product Purchasing, Indirect Purchasing, Customer Care and Aftersales, and Logistics.
